

PrefaceStudios

a creative design agency
specialising in branding

Hello, we are Preface Studios.

A creative design agency based in Farnham, Surrey. We deliver branding and web projects in all shapes and sizes; building new brands and refreshing existing ones. Our clients are varied, ranging from small local businesses and SME's to large international companies.

We are proud to say we are the only agency in Farnham who offer a complete branding service - from brand strategy through to design application across all media.

Our approach

Beautiful design is meaningless without purpose and we believe a unique point of difference is just as important as how you present yourself.

Our approach has two stages.

The first, looking at why your product/service exists and who for. The second is delivering outstanding design to help you look the best you possibly can.

This approach helps you achieve your business goals, stand out from the crowd and stay relevant to your target audiences - both now and in the future.

Our culture

We are honest, down to earth and straight talking.

Our design process is flexible which helps us to work with our clients rather than for them and it is this approach that enables us to build strong, long-lasting and trusted relationships.

Our history

Since forming the company in 2006, we have grown organically and successfully delivered over 850 projects for both B2B and B2C clients across a range of industries.

Our team now has over 45 years collective design industry experience.

“ I highly recommend Preface Studios for anyone seeking to break the mould and deal with an enthusiastic, professional and innovative design team ”
